Saturday's St. Louis papers say of Hogs:

Farmers would do well to horry up their fatten-ng, and market their Hogs early. We note sales are of 500 head, and other small lots, over 200 counds net, at 55 50 for this month's delivery, while 050 head were offered at this for Decamber de-ivery, and not taken.

At Alton and Grayville, Illinois, Hogs are selling from $5@6 for early delivery.

Pork-packing has commenced at Dubuque, lowa, where 12,000 or 15,000 Hogs will be cut this season.

The Discount market, however, continues very inactive; in fact, there is no outside demand for Parer, and the burden of accommodation falls exclusively on the Banks. Of course, they are not in a position to meet all the offerings, but a judicious distribution of the meet needful aesistance that is required. In the meanwhile, capital is accumulating rapidly in private hands, and losing chances for investment, many of which will not reoccur for a long time to come. Whatever may be the political uncertainties of the hour, it should be borne in mind that our Cotton and other products will be required at all hexards.

A large amount of business was done in Exchange, and the market showed more steadiness at the lower range of figures quoted yesterday.
